

Latino/Hispanic Population in Pennsylvania.

Raffy R. Luquis, Ph.D., MCHES®

Interim Director & Professor of Biobehavioral Health

School of Behavioral Sciences and Education

PennState
Harrisburg

Hispanic/Latino Population in PA

- In 2020, 1,049,615 (8%) identified as Hispanic or Latino.
 - Over 45% increase since 2010.
- Median age of 27.9 compared to 42.6 years for non-Hispanic or Latino.
- Under the age of 18 - 32.9% compared to 19.3% for non-Hispanic or Latino.

PennState
Harrisburg

Figure 2: Pennsylvania Population by Race/Ethnicity, 2020

Each racial category represents the non-Hispanic single race alone. Hispanic includes individuals of any race.

AIAN=American Indian & Alaska Native

AIAN (0.1%)

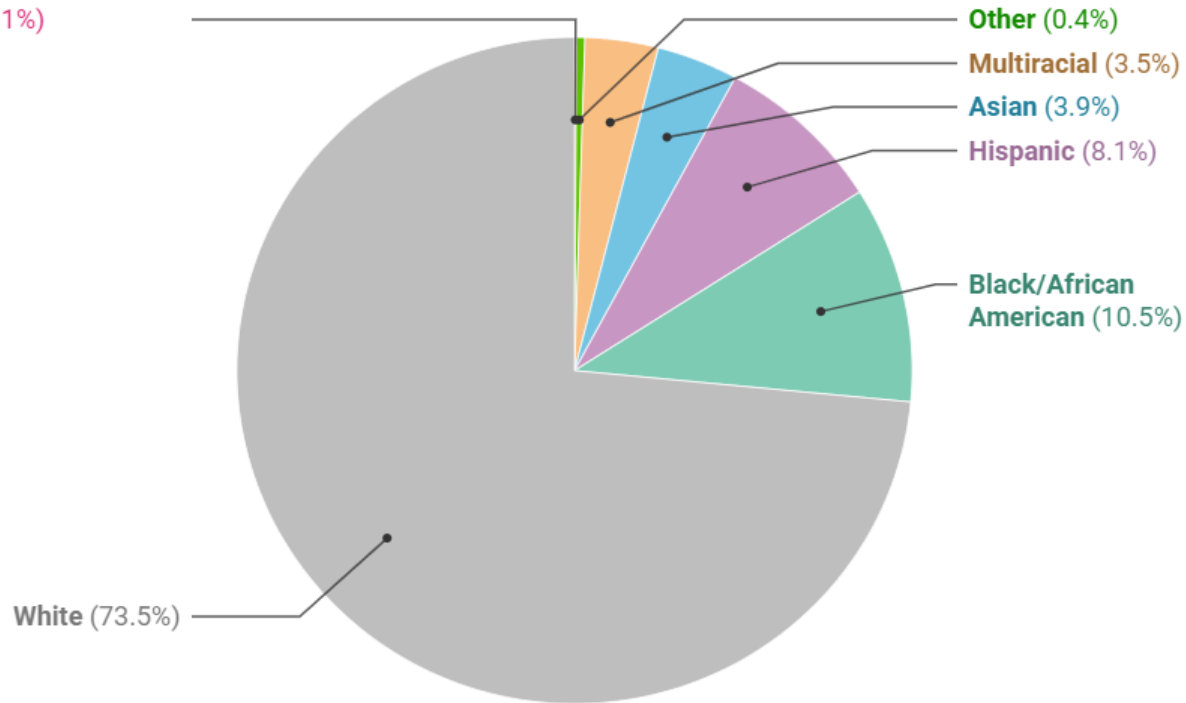

Chart: PA State Data Center • Source: US Census Bureau • Get the data • Created with Datawrapper

PennState
Harrisburg

Figure 4: Second Largest Racial or Ethnic Group by County

Statewide: Black/African American

Each racial category represents the non-Hispanic single race alone. Hispanic includes individuals of any race.

Map: PA State Data Center • Source: US Census Bureau • Get the data • Created with Datawrapper

PennState
Harrisburg

Median Household Income by Race

American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates (2017-2022)

Asian White PA Avg. Multiracial Hispanic Other Black/AA

Races may include individuals of Hispanic or Latino origin. Similarly, Hispanic may include individuals of any race.

Chart: PA State Data Center • Source: U.S. Census Bureau • Created with Datawrapper

PennState
Harrisburg

Other Characteristics

- Below poverty level – 23.9% vs. 11.8%
- Educational level: bachelor or higher – 20.8% vs. 35.1%
- Speak Spanish at home over the age of 5
 - PA – 694,720 (5.6%)
 - Speak English less than well – 302,763 (43.6%)
 - Hispanic – 66%
- Lack of health insurance – 11% vs. 5%.
- Don't have a personal health care provider – 21%

PennState
Harrisburg

